

Oxide & Neutrino, They Think It's Easy

they think its easy
to go on TV
do what i do each day
acting a certain way
could of lived a normal life worked a job at nine till five but i chose to entertain so why the hell you hating me

You think it's easy and overnight we became stars on TV
we put our backs into this hands dirty and our elbows greasy school playground back in 96 put in to beat box wid jugal lyrics in the corner with graffiti bricks no lyrical content it was about being quick school would finish i would rush home take my mike plug it in to my stereo record myself and listen back to me MCing over beats on the radio youth clubs it was to and throw i even switched to DJ neutrino i did this nearly every day just to help my skills grow nine till five that worked for me, ive tried, ive flipped bugers in Mac d's and a wearhouse at the top of my road all day i stacked boxes with a twin knee i could'nt stay focused mentally, coz all i wanted to do was MC get up on a pirate radio to rock the airways and explode.

Then it started in 98 on a pirste station i thought was great Supream fm 96.1 where we showed our skills to south of london live a legend so solid EDF for year was better then the best cloud nine, channel club, colliseum step by step what a long process year 99 to like 103
mega, meeg and mr c
we worked so hard we worked non stop we put transmitters on top of the block we put aeirals on top of the block from d - I on top of the block in the pouring rain on top of the block in the middle of the night on top of the block rythm of the club we would storm to the front hijack the mike and bust the place up the crowd would go mad the crowd would go BO casualty, dilemma and oh no ox ti dubz worked so hard stepping casually out the back of a car because every night we had to travel far in a brick down escort, ford XR so many things to do knowing we make this through tele radio interviews late night photo shoots do this like we aim different venue, different place different people, different name oh oh oh oh

back then chicks playing hard to get, now a days they wanna bet with only god knows when i just cant pretend i can see the changes, that are happening back then we used to pay nowadays they give em away sponsors from left to right just sign on the dotted line everything is all good now oh we made it now but still you wanna put us down
