

Oxymoron, Life's A Bitch

Just another day, and just another mess
But if you resign you'll never know success

Chin up, get out now and try again my friend
This life is your last, so enjoy it 'til the end

[chorus:]

You stand in the heap of the ruins that your life used to be
All the time you succumbed to a fake or a dangerous mistake
You stand in the heap of the rubble of broken ideals
It's true that life's a bitch

REsign to your fate, life's hard but I live to win
...Life's a bitch
Just keep on trying over and over again
...Life's a bitch

Risk it - standing proud demands to give a bit
No future to behold, so make the best of it

Face it, find out that it's worth to make a stand
Nothing venture nothing have - it's true my friend
