

Ozark Mountain Daredevils, It Couldn't Be Better

(GUITARS INTRO)

now a tear

leaves you only a trace and the sun

finds its way to your face

it couldn't be better,

it couldn't be better, Lord

than it is right now

and the one

that you gave all your charms

finds his way to the depth of your arms

it couldn't be better,

(GUITAR SOLO)

it couldn't be better,
