

Ozark Mountain Daredevils, Walkin' Down The Road

(GUITAR & PIANO INTRO)

well, I'm walkin' down the road with my hat on my head had to leave my mama in my big brass bed well, sun is shinin' on me and you know it sure feels fine

Lord, I made it to the station with my suitcase in my hand walked up to the window like a nat'ral born man said I sure do hope that choo-choo train runs on time (choo-choo, choo-choo)
Lord, I sure do hope that choo-choo train runs on time well, these two dollar shoes, Lord, they hurt my feet, but that fifty-cent liquor, well it could not be beat and I see no reason, reason to be sad

'cause I'm goin' where them cold, cold winds don't blow where the streams and rivers, Lord, they all run slow ain't no use in cryin', cryin' over what you had Lord, ain't no use in cryin', cryin over what you had

(NATIONAL STEEL SOLO) (ahhh, ahhh)

well, I'm walkin' down the road with my hat on my head
had to leave my mama in my big brass bed well, sun is shinin' on me and you know it sure feels fine

Lord, I made it to the station with my suitcase in my hand
walked up to the window like a nat'ral born man
said I sure do hope that choo-choo train runs on time (choo-choo, choo-choo)
