

Ozma, Lately

lately my world's been coming down and lately i've needed you around lately my love's been on the ground and lately i've needed you around

i've always needed you
i've pledged my love so true

stuck on another lovely stuck on the other lovely stuck on another lovely girl lately my love's been so benign and lately i've wanted you for mine lately you've been oh so unkind and lately things haven't fell in line

oh my girl i love you so

where is my only one when i'm the lonely one?
my girl
