

Ozzy Osbourne, Evil Shuffle

I'm looking for pleasure
My pleasure is pain
I know that the night is calling for the evil shuffle again
It starts with a feeling
I'm losing control
There's blood on the ceiling, baby, and the voices call from below
(Yea)

Mad man living inside me
He won't let me go
Mad man who's smiling so frightening
Turn my night to a beautiful nightmare
(Yea)

I crawl in the shadows
I pray on the weak
When I do the evil shuffle, yea, you won't be moving you feet
I'll never escape it
Death brings me to life
You'll cry for mercy baby but the laughter is getting you high

Mad man living inside me
He won't let me go
Mad mad who's smiling so frightening
Turn my night to a beautiful nightmare

Man man who lives inside me
Driving me crazy all night long
Doing the evil shuffle
Is really where I do belong
Is where I do belong

Mad man living inside me
He won't let me go
Mad mad who's smiling so frightening
Turn my night to a beautiful nightmare
(Yea)
