

Ozzy Osbourne, Immortal (feat. Mike McCready)

I come alive at the second of midnight
So I can fly when the world is asleep
You scream and howl as I'm taking the first bite
Blood on my tongue tastes of eternity

People will come and go
Some stories never told
They bury me down below
But I'll never die
'Cause I'm immortal
Yes, immortal

The dogs are out and the kingdoms are falling
Dressed as your friends but they're your enemies
You fear the end because you can't see it coming
Afraid to sleep 'cause I'm inside your dreams

People will come and go
Some stories never told
Bury me down below
But I'll never die
'Cause I'm immortal

People will come and go
Some stories never told
Bury me down below
But I'll never die
No, no

People will come and go
Some stories never told
Bury me down below
But I'll never die
'Cause I'm immortal
