

P Diddy, Friends

Aha, yeah, yeah

In a world of, larger moves, new cars to cruise

Sometimes I make the news, falsely accused

I gotta shake the spot when the stakes is high

A brother needs space like a vacant lot

I'm lookin forward to the future, Mase and The Lox

And my little son Justin, touchin a knot

You knew I was comin for the crowns that's uptown

You knew I was comin to put it down so what now?

It's the Bad Boy, pull up and break the clutch down in the five-speed, smirkin then pull up at high speed

Can you enterprise and rise like cream do?

And leave em talk about the last time they seen you?

Game is magnet, to everything platinum with my name attached, can you all do that?

Think one thing when you read my name

That Puff nigga, the game'll never be the same

Chorus: Puff Daddy singing
