

P.O.D., Adrenaline

You don't feel the pain (pain pain pain)
Too much is not enough
Nobody said this stuff, made any sense
We're hooked again
The point of no return
See how the buildings burn, light up the night such a pretty sight

chorus

Adrenaline keeps me in the game
Adrenaline, you don't even feel the pain
Wilder, than your wildest dreams
when your going to scream, you taste adrenaline

And you don't feel the pain (pain pain pain)
Sail through an empty night
To only you and I, who understands there is no plan
Get closer to the thrill
Only time can kill, its in your eyes so alive

chorus

Adrenaline keeps me in the game
Adrenaline, you don't even feel the pain
Wilder, than your wildest dreams
When your going to scream, you taste adrenaline

Run through the speed of sound, nothin to slow you down
The colors that surround (the colors surround)
Are bleeding to one (are bleeding to one)
Everything you really need, just a way to find the speed
Is very well achieved
Escape velocity

Too much is not enough
Nobody gave it up
I'm not the kind, to lay down and die

chorus

Adrenaline keeps me in the game
Adrenaline, you don't even feel the pain
Wilder, than your wildest dreams
When your going to scream, you taste adrenaline

Adrenaline screaming out your name
Adrenaline you dont even feel the pain
Wilder than your wildest dreams
When your going to scream, you taste adrenaline

And you dont even feel the pain
And you dont even feel the pain
I'm going to scream
Theres nothin in between
You dont even feel the pain
You dont even feel the pain
I'm going to scream
(Always feel the pain)
(Aeep going til' I scream)
(Nothin in between)
(Keep going til' I scream)
(Keep going til' I scream)
(Nothing in between)
You dont even feel the pain, feel the pain, feel the pain
