

Pacifier, Just A Shadow

Living it up inside a cloud of isolation with all the people tryin' to be somebody else (cut apart) an extra generation (cut apart) forget yourself stand up stand up stand up (fuck yeah) when they line up line up, (fuck yeah) standin in line left alone in your mind you're too cool to touch there's something inside you where nobody goes and there's something about you that i used to know and if the sun is still shinin, you'd never tell you're just a shadow

tied up in knots left hanging from the ceiling with all the people wishin i was somewhere else looking good, dont know wat i'm feeling looking good inside yourself when they get up get up (fuck yeah)

when they line up line up (fuck yeah) spending their time just to get to a life i cant seem to touch

and if the sun is still shining you'd never tell you're just a shadow, of somebody else
you're just a shadow

(head banging bit)

let goooooo (get up get up get up) let goooooo (stand up stand up stand up)

there's something about u that i used to know and if the sun is still shinin you'd never tell
you're just a shadow, of somebody else
you're just a shadow
you're just a shadow
