

Paddock Park, HopeyouddieXO

Lets burn these bridges and disconnect from our encounters
You'll never know the trails that I've been through The trails that I've been through
Let's go through life and never speak again
Watch your mouth!
I hope you die
I hope you die!
Consequences I tried so hard to make the wrong ones right
I hope this will be the same
The same some day
You won't I cant
End this without putting up a fight
This is my last chance
I hope you die
If I could scream it in your face
I'd scream it every day
Just to show you how much this means to me
To me
Our friendship was reckless and sometimes bleak
so let's end on good terms
And never speak again
Watch what you say
Watch what you say
Watch what you say!
If I could scream it in your face I'd scream it every day
Just to show you how much this means to me
To me!
Our friendship was reckless and sometimes bleak
So let's end on good terms
And never speak again
Never
Never
Never speak again
