

Paddy Goes To Holyhead, Johnny Went To The War

They'll send him to the war-inspector
"I'll be back tomorrow" said he
"When I will return again we'll go to Mexico"
"They sent you to the war-inspector
I have missed you Johnny" said she
"Great to know you by my side
I'll never let you go

"[Refrain:]"

In the name of freedom
Where the murdering cannons roar
Excellent diversion
Johnny-Boy went to the war

They'll send him to the regiment
"I'll be back tomorrow" said he
"When I will return again we'll go to Mexico"
"They sent you to the regiment
I have missed you Johnny" said she
"Great to know you by my side
I'll never let you go

"[Refrain]"

They'll send him to the battlefield
"I'll be back tomorrow" said he
"When I will return again you'll never let me go"
"They sent you to the battlefield
I have missed you Johnny" said she
"Great to know you by my side
In your graveyard down below"

"[Refrain]"
