

Paddy Kelly, No fuzz No buzz, Back to Rock n'Roll

Deep down the ocean is where I`m going away from the surface that evil has woven `cause believing lies is like eating rotten apples fighting through the jungle in this world of wackos

Blown by the wind or taken by the current and being hurried to be burried is what you inherit grow up with mass media manipulation perverting present and future generation bridge

Gotta ba as wise as a snake and gentle as a dove I`d rather be a manacay than a fake as long as I work out of love alive for heaven`s sake but just believing is not enough

chorus

No fuzz no buzz back to rock`n`roll
no fuzz no buzz back to rock`n`roll no fuzz no buzz back to rock`n`roll songs If I`m not in the solution I`m in the problem just one man`s opinion amongst 6 billion politically incorrect even if that nails me dead `cause someone gotta stop...to break the silence

Live what you preach the fruits of this tree is what we will see

Live what you preach keep your spirit free from the thorns and the weeds
