Pagan's Mind, In Brilliant White Light

Tender light upon frozen ground Approaching the celestial one Scene of beauty appear before My fainting eye - a sign

Floating closer, transcendent light On this magic night revealed "From far, creator of time" Answers in time

"On your dimension You're destined to be A passive observer Of life's mystery"

Heed the call
Of the enlightened conscious ones
Time has ceased
By the trance, you'll see the light

Bring the sign
Bring it onto
The humankind to all

" A prophecy of our reign
