

Pagan's Mind, The Celestine Prophecy

Through these sacred eyes I see
What has been and what will be
Mesmerized, the will to find the way
Seeking wide to find the key to mesmerize
Waiting, climbing, searching the way

[Bridge:]
Through the skies hear the whispering silence
To the eyes of the grandest conclusion of war

[Chorus:]
Charging humanity
Save us, unite us!
There's whispers in the wind - blowing...

Higher consciousness, our race
Now involved in the next phase
Tranquilized, a higher state of grace
Light the fire in those who dwell - Urantia
Open their eyes, Mission Athena

[Bridge:]
Through the skies hear the whispering silence
To the eyes of the grandest conclusion of war

Terminate the mortal shell
Cryptic codes unleashing hell

[Chorus:]
Charging humanity
Save us, unite us!
There's whispers in the wind - blowing...

Ascending higher, rise to the light
The Celestine Prophecy

Nine insights will lead the way to transform as one
Charging mass consciousness, twelve tribes of Israel

[Bridge:]
Through the skies hear the whispering silence
Charging up to a mindwarp
Powersource, parallel aiming
Melting cosmos and Tellus again...

Terminate the mortal shell
Cryptic codes unleashing Hell
In this world, United Force...
...Enigmatic Calling all

[Chorus:]
Charging humanity
Save us, unite us!
There's whispers in the wind - blowing...

Ascending higher, rise to the light
Some will rise up, some will perish
Lead us higher, eternally
Charging humanity, save us, unite us...
...Before the night takes us all
