

Page Martin, Broken Stairway

We've played the final game
Now we both remain
Froze beneath your jealous sky
Lord knows I fear to tread
I see no steps ahead
Suspicion burns out all the lights

Chorus:

On a broken stairway
Is this where our love will stay
On a broken stairway
We say goodbye
Silence corrodes the air
I guess we can't repair
The cracks that run right through our lives
All of the tears you fake
Are abandoned here halfway
Between the truth between the lies

Chorus:

On a broken stairway
Foundations rock and sway
On a broken stairway
We say goodbye
On a broken stairway
Is this where our love will stay
On a broken stairway
We say goodbye
