

Page & Plant, Blue Train

Another day is ended
I remember when
My world came falling down

Out there the stars stopped dancing
Lost in my darkness now
The rain keeps falling down

Light of my life
Where have you gone?
Love's true flame dies
Without the warmth of your sun

"Ah, ah, ah, ah
Ah, ah"

Here comes a blue train rolling
Across my heart it crawls
The rain still falling down

Another day escapes me
A little later maybe
Love will roll around

Light of my life
Where have you gone?
Love's true flame dies
Without the warmth of your sun

I been waiting on a corner
Yeah, I been waiting for your sign now
Oh, I been waiting on a corner
I been waiting for a sign now, oh now

Light of my life
Where have you gone?
Love's true flame dies
Without the warmth of your sun

So you know the blue train go
It carry my heart and my soul, oh
Eh, whistle blowing, blue train rolling
Carry my darkness all around, eh
Whistle blow, blue train roll
Carry my heart

I been waiting on a corner
I been wishing for a sign now, oh
I been hanging on a corner
I been waiting for a sign now, oh, ooh

Whistle blowing, blue train going
Calling across my mind now, oh
Oh, yeah

I been standing on the corner
I been waiting for the sun to go down
Yeah, the blue train, it's the blue train
Oh, it's a blue train rolling
