

Pain, Don't Wake The Dead

See how evil spread its wings
All the nightmare comes alive right through your dreams
Time is ticking way too fast
Close your eyes and another life has passed

Don't wake the dead
Where life's so beautiful
Don't chase the dead
Where truth makes no sense

Come here, wash away your sins
All the lies you need to feel that you're free
I see your faith start to crack
Karma creeping up like a monkey on your back
No mercy, feel the flames

Don't wake the dead
Where life's so beautiful
Don't chase the dead
Where truth makes no sense

Don't wake the dead
Where life's so wonderful
Don't chase the dead
Your life makes no sense

Death has no shame
You're wonderful
It's how it will end

Don't wake the dead
Where life's so beautiful
Don't chase the dead
Where truth makes no sense

Don't wake the dead
Where life's so wonderful
Don't chase the dead
Your life makes no sense

'Cause you don't exist
