

Pain, Expelled

I feel your breathing down my neck
No where to hide
I thought I could get away
But it's a good day to die
My time has come and I think I'm ready, yes
I lost the game I thought I played so very well

(refrain:)

No
I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna leave, I don't wanna go
No
I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna die, I got more to give

Here I'm standing accused with a rope around my neck
Just wait for the final call then I'll be gone

Never got the chance to say goodbye
Never got the chance to take the time to enjoy my life

(Refrain)

Don't take my life away now

(No, No, No, No)

(Refrain)

No
I don't wanna go now
Don't take my life away now
