This is my story, hej

This is how I live my life

This is my story, naj, jaj, jaj

Full of joy and pure delight

I live in a village

Where the sun is shining bright

I live in a village

No, no more, no more, no more crying

No, no more, no more, no more fighting

In my village there is no need for war and guns

In my village you can respect and you can trust

In my village you are free to speak your mind

In my village we are singing, singing for love

No, no more, no more, no more crying x 2

No, no more, no more, no more fighting x 2
