

Pale Divine, Cigarette

I can kiss you when I need to
I can crush you when you're mean
I can have you in the morning with my dirty magazines
You're my constant sticky finger
I'll never get enough, you're my cigarette
My love
You're my heaven in a package
You're the love I never had
My friend when I'm unhappy
My mother when I'm bad
You're my passive suicide
I can't end life fast enough
You're my cigarette, my love
My cigarette, my love
My cigarette, my love
My cigarette
I'm in a love affair with poison
I'm addicted to my death
It's a constant situation
I'm screaming out your name with my last breath
I'm waiting for you
You're my choice when I am choosing
You're my active karma sin
You're my loss when I am losing
I won't lose you again
You're my passive suicide
I can't end life fast enough
You're my cigarette, my love
My cigarette, my love
My cigarette, my love
My cigarette, my love
(My cigarette, my love)
My love, my love
(My cigarette, my love)
(My cigarette, my love)
I want you
I hate you
I love you
I quit!
