Pale Saints, Always I

wanted to pin things down but not fake it rather not hear what i plan to say i've got to say it's not easy to keep up the invention don't wanna hide what i have to feel i've got to feel i, my i, always i wanted to see this through can i face it? now i'm too tired to hide it's easy to give up the attentions of lucid time though i'd learn to see it had to be i, my i, always i
