

Pale, Sometimes Somewhere

Make me come alive on Monday, 4 a.m.
stopped on my plastic watch.
But you don't call, it's me again.
We're not the first ones, yeah.
We're not the last ones, no.
We're just two lost souls more

Everybody wants to get it soon
everybody wants to leave it, yeah, everybody wants to get it.

It's everything we give it now,
it's everything we give it, sometimes somewhere.
It's everything, a simple sign,
Sometimes is here.

It's everything, a simple sign,
it's everything we give it, sometimes somewhere.
It's everything, a simple sign,
Sometimes is here.

Make me come alive on Monday, 4 a.m.
stopped on my plastic watch.
But you don't call, it's me again.
We're not the first ones, yeah.
We're not the last ones, no.
We're just two lost souls more

Everybody wants to get it soon
everybody wants to leave it,

It's everything, a simple sign,
it's everything we give it, sometimes somewhere.
It's everything, a simple sign,
Sometimes is here.

It's always sometimes, but it's okay, I know.
I try to learn how to forget and keep in mind.
It's always sometimes, but it's okay, I know.
I try to learn ...

I don't mind how cool you are,
your talent is the brightest star.
Someone else will look at you,
I better should (have) believed in you.

It's everything, a simple sign,
it's everything we give it, sometimes somewhere.
It's everything, a simple sign,
Sometimes is here. Somewhere is now.

It's everything, a simple sign,
it's everything we give it, sometimes somewhere.
It's everything, a simple sign,
Sometimes is here. Somewhere is now.
