

Pale Waves, Easy

Close your eyes
Act surprised
It took its time
I know it's not your birthday
Oh my God
I don't believe
How can it be/
That you're alive at the same time as me

Why?
Why?
Would I ever know life without you?
I would fade into the blue

You keep the lights on from me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy
You changed something inside me
I am not used to be
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

Well, the truth is that this world can be so sour
But you make it so sweet
I was trying to make myself so tough
And you made me so weak

Why?
Why?
Would I ever know life without you?
I would fade into the blue

You keep the lights on from me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy
You changed something inside me
I am not used to be
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

Nothing's ever felt this right
I look at you and I feel alive
You save me every time
You keep the lights on from me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

You keep the lights on from me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy
You changed something inside me
I am not used to be
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy
