

Pale Waves, Unwanted

You're so good yeah you're so good
At making me feel like nothing
Making me feel unwanted

My distorted view on us
Is starting to get too much
I kept it locked away
So deep with the damage you caused me
The lack of empathy
You don't love anybody

I wanna prove that you still care
But your silence fills the air

You're so good yeah you're so good (so good)
At making me feel like nothing
Making me feel unwanted (but I know)
You're no good yeah you're no good (no good)
And that's why I'm so guarded
You make me feel unwanted
You make me feel unwanted

Why did you keep me hanging on?
If you knew all along
I'd never fit your perfect life
You didn't compromise
And I'll never know why
I'm nothing but a goodbye

You're so good yeah you're so good (so good)
At making me feel like nothing
Making me feel unwanted (but I know)
You're no good yeah you're no good (no good)
And that's why I'm so guarded
You make me feel unwanted
You make me feel unwanted
