

Panic Channel, Left To Lose

What can I say

Baby

What can I do

I tried and failed just to fit in

I greased the wheels

That only

Drove away

Always ends up the same

I don't have much left to lose

Flow and crumble

Breathe and burning through

Send your bullets in

Draw your blades

Spit my words right back in my face

If I must die

Just to be remade

So long

So long!

I don't have much left to lose

Flow and crumble

Breathe and burning through

For you...

Just you wait

Just you wait, I'm coming

Just you wait

Just you wait

Can I get a witness?

(I will)

Never tell another lie

No

I don't have much left to lose

Flow and crumble

Breathe and burning through

If I can't make you stay

I'll never find the way

Can you feel

What I feel?

These hard times

Will shine from far away
