

Panzer AG, Among The Few

All my regrets are buried in ashes,
My lust for life killed it all.
I spread my arms, I fill my lungs with air.
I can hear my bones crash against the reefs.

Please understand,
I got nothing left to give you.
Until the end, until we meet again.
But soon my friend,
I will meet you by the river

Turn around, walk away
And don't look back, the threat is real.
I've done everything I can.

With rusty nails
They nailed me down.
I cannot bleed, already dead.
Don't shed your tears,
I had no choice.

Please understand,
I got nothing left to give you.
Until the end, until we meet again.
In my head, there is only total war...
But soon my friend,
I will meet you by the river.
