

Paolo Santos, Take Me

Take me to those arms, baby
Take me to the sea
Take me where your love
Would bring me
Help me to be free

Is it clear to the sparkle in your eyes
There's no fear or any old goodbye
This is real, I can feel it
Drivin' up my spine
I know you should be mine

When I met you
I saw a rainbow up the sky
When I held you
Time began to fly
It's so real, I can feel it
Deep inside my heart
The only way to start

Never counted it for a minute
Everything so right
Never dreamt that I'd be in it
That you are at my sight
