

Papa Roach, Ego Trip

I got a mad man living in my head man
He ain't got no sense man
He ain't paying rent
Obviously I wanna put him in a headlock
Lock him in a black box
And throw him off the edge
And now my heart of gold is lost
I'm everything I'm not
I start believing all the bullshit that I'm spouting off
I'm talking outta my neck
Can't nobody put me in check
I'm blinded by my pride
I keep on turning up in this mess

Turn a blind eye when I'm living a lie
I gotta remind myself sometimes
To never get high on my own supply
'Cause when I get high

I'm on an ego trip
I'm on an ego trip
I'm on an ego trip
I gotta tell myself sometimes to come down

Never get high on your own supply
They say never get high on your own supply
Now I never get high on my own supply
I gotta tell myself sometimes to come down

I'm in a rat race
Everybody's stress-cased
Trying find the dead weight tugging on my neck
Ain't nobody humble
Out here in this jungle
If we gotta rumble, you gon' hit the deck
Oh yeah my golden state of mind
Is everything but fine
I used to be a lover, now I'm looking for a fight
My medication is off
Don't know who controlling my thoughts
My arrogance is throwing fists, my therapist can fuck off

Turn a blind eye when I'm living a lie
I gotta remind myself sometimes
To never get high on my own supply
'Cause when I get high

I'm on an ego trip
I'm on an ego trip
I'm on an ego trip
I gotta tell myself sometimes to come down

Never get high on your own supply
They say never get high on your own supply
Now I never get high on my own supply
I gotta tell myself sometimes to come down

Me llamo Jacobo
Y yo soy tan loco
El ego no es mi amigo

I'm on an ego trip
I'm on an ego trip
I'm on an ego trip

I gotta tell myself sometimes to come down

Never get high on your own supply
They say never get high on your own supply
Now I never get high on my own supply
I gotta tell myself sometimes to come down
