

Papa Roach, Into The Light

This is a warning
My final warning
This is a warning
My final warning
MY Head Full Of wreckage
A Mouth full of lies My mind is in the gutter
I feel like i wanna die Im the king of nothing with a broken crown Im gonna take it and beat it but i wont back down Free Me From Myself
shut down my mind
A So long revolution
Into the light
This spear is a weakness and its wearing me out im burning the sickness it feels like im going down and align my affliction and i run from the light its a lowly condition Fk all this madness
put it aside
out of the shadows
into the light
free me from myself
shut down my mind
Out of the shadows
Into the light
Out of the shadows
Into the light
free me from myself
shut down my mind
A So long revolution
Into the light
Fk all this madness
Put it aside
Out of the shadows
Into the light
Free me from myself
Shut down my mind
Shut down my mind
Free me from myself.
