

Papa Vegas, Little Kisses

(written by Joel Ferguson)

Hold my hand in secret silence
Build a castle with no walls
Go along without your conscience
Keep it in the dark so long
Keep your little kisses strong
Keep them in the dark no more
Hold yourself through times of treason
Walk on down by rivers edge
Keep your eyesight on the season
Turning like the dreamers head
Keep your little kisses strong
Keep them in the dark no more
Keep your little kisses strong
Keep your little kisses strong
Keep them in the dark no more
Keep your little kisses strong
Keep them in the dark no more
