

Paperback Hero, Perfect In Plastic

Well, I knew you well
Never once did I believe
In all the times you failed to see
Scared, I know you're scared
Constantly you find a way
To pull the blinds to all the gray
You live your life and it's perfect
You bare your cross and it's perfect
You have no lines and it's perfect
Perfect in plastic
Well
Perfect in plastic
Fell, I knew you fell
Holding onto life through me
Letting go of jealousy
There, I see you there
Across the room in disbelief
Fighting back those tears of grief
You live your life and it's perfect
You bare your cross and it's perfect
You have no lines and it's perfect
Perfect in plastic
Well
Perfect in plastic
You live your life and it's perfect
You bare your cross and it's perfect, perfect
You have no lines and it's perfect
Perfect in plastic
Well
You have no lines and it's perfect
You bare your cross and it's perfect, perfect
You live your life and it's perfect
You crossed the line and it's perfect
Perfect
Perfect
Perfect in plastic
