

Parachute, Winterlove

Oh it's one more year of waiting,
One more month of all alone,
One more day is fading, just bring me back my winterlove.

Spring goes by so slowly, Summer cant come fast enough, Fall can leave me lonely,
Just bring me back my winterlove.

Oh i slept in every city, Drove through every countryside Made friends with the shadows Looking for a place to hide

And ive crossed every ocean and ive climbed every mountaintop Oh, but nothing seems to hold me hold me like my winterlove and the world keeps going as you kiss me so slowly as your blue eyes they say goodbye oh the snow is finally falling when i walk the streets, i think of her i can hear the choir singing as i pause beside the open door and the church bells sound above me and the people pass me one by one oh its midnight now on christmas and im here without my winterlove yeahhhhhhhh without my winterlove when the angels come to take you when your plane takes off from washington oh, ill be right where you left me ill wait for you my winterlove oh ill wait for you my winterlove

oh ill wait for you my winterlove
