

Paradise Lost, Isolate

i'm sent for elimination to where i cannot know, but i'm lost without a chance in hell and i'm lost with doubts i can avoid this come feel the fire burn i'll slowly drift away a victim of the future my mind and soul decayed isolate

i'm sent for eradication by whom i cannot know, but i'm lost without a chance in hell i'm the last one out i can't avoid this exposed to fire but i'll burn another way a victim of the future i embrace the tourniquet

lead us all to pastures green to search and learn from ones i cannot be lead us all to harmony

to search and learn
the one i cannot be
