

Paradise Lost, It's too late

Feared and loathed besides...
It's such a tragedy
I've seen all others try
It ends in misery
Could you stand back and take this all in
Before it's too late?
Fragrant your remarks
You offered sympathy
Read between the lines?
The dream is honesty
Could you stand back and take this all in
Before it's too late? Now,
Could you stand back and set this soul free
Before It's Too Late?
Dealt the losing hand
No need for jealousy
As our worlds collapse
Who will the saviours be?
Could you stand back and take this all in
Before it's too late? Now,
Could you stand back and set this soul free
Before it's too late?
