Creatures creeping out, hungry and reborn
Anguish in their faith, their believe
Conquest and disease

Fear takes over, reason should not, but it fails
Thrill of malice, inquisitiveness prevails

Hands snatching at us so cruel
Will they get us and kill?
No! We will grow up and spread the thrill

Parts in us love it!
Blood thirsty nights, no rules
But fights for heir apparent

Entering your skull with depravity
Lord takes you aside finally you are free!
What is awesome rush overtaking all!
One time comes the call!

Your time's over! Speeding furious -- gone!
Hard impact, but you knew that this time would come
