

Parallel Worlds, Elliot Minor

My minds playing up, again, someone's there,
The room is getting colder now,
The light swings again, and im scared, cause someone's there,
Stop messing with my mind cause now I'm..
Trapped in your world where your burning in my eyes,
You're like a shadow that never hides...!
I'm stuck in parallel worlds, something supernatural,
It won't let me go,
It's paranormal, and no one else believes,
I feel so alone again.
I'm stuck against the wall, I can't make a move,
My heart beat stops,
I'm scared of this time cause I can't make a line,
Say once again it just proves to be difficult,
I'm feeling nervous but it's nothing that I cannot do,
I'm stuck in a diension where it's hard to breath, and it's still true, I'm loosing my mind, I'm falling,
Someone hel me what can I do!
