

Paris, Serious Song

I didn't know that it was serious
I didn't know that I was wrong
I didn't know that it was something else as mysterious I lose control
to finally lose myself

Serious serious serious
Serious serious serious
Serious serious serious
Losing my heart in love

I couldn't see that it was something else
'cause I was so small I couldn't see that it was obvious that I hurt myself and I loose control
to finally lose myself
