

Paris Twila, True Friend

Twila Paris

Seems like you know when I need you

Seems like He knows who to send

You never come as a prophet

Just an open hearted friend

Faithfully wounding my pride

Bringing me back to His side

Sharing the Word that you hide in your heart

Chorus

You are a true friend

Pointing me to Him

Lifting my downcast eyes

Turning my gaze to the sky

Probing your love again

You are a true friend

You are a true friend

Some days I feel like a failure

And I'd love to leave it all

I see no reason to go on

That's when you decide to call

Making it simple and clear

That's why your voice is so dear

My heart takes courage from hearing you say

Repeat Chorus
