

Park, Ghost Boy

Innocence is topped not lost just overung And there's times I would forget but I Knew I didn't want to lose you little 9 year olds Where bareskin boys plot shirtless ploys to steal the evenings and then turn the night to day You always try to minimize your loss.
Disenchant my life to wrapped up in a bottle thrown out to sea My life flip and flop turn and toss I'm drowning slowly don't I listen carefully This like my life rapped up in a bottle just as you always do Stay right here for the remainder of your life Just like you always do
