

Parokya Ni Edgar, Lazy

Wake up at tuele and I sleep some more
I can hear someone knocking, knocking on my door
I won't get up coz I don't want to
It's just one of the other things that I won't get to do

I'm just plain lazy yeah, yeah
Don't care about you, Don't care about you
Wathcing grass grow from my window sill
Is just som much better than sitting still
There's nothing on this world that I would rather do
Than to rather relax kick back and have a briskey or two
