

Part Six, I Only Shine When I Look At You

I wish I had wings, to fly
Cause I miss you baby.
I wish I was there, where you are, just tonight.
I know it isnt so.
I know it isnt true, but I know...

Refrain:
I only shine when I look at you
and Ive been trying someothers too.
I only shine when I look at you,
guess its true, I belong to you!

I wish I could breathe, by your side
cause I miss you baby,
and I wish that you could see.
How much you mean to me, just tonight.
I know youre far away.
theres so much I wanna say, cause I know now...

5xRefrain:
I only shine when I look at you
and Ive been trying someothers too.
I only shine when I look at you,
guess its true, I belong to you!
