

Part Six, She's Got

It's gotta be
I got her in sight
It's gotta be good
It's gotta be clearly understood
She's got that look
She's got that special touch,
Now i don't know that much,
But i make her mine mine mine
She's gotta vibe a kinda outer glow,
From inside let you know
Don't waste my time, time.
One guy One girl A night to show I have love for her

She's got that perfect smile
(It's gotta be good)
She's got those eyes
(It's gotta be)
She's got that look of love
(It's gotta be)
She's got my mind

I can't just look 'cause that won't feel the same
It's time i name my game
And make her mine
That's it her look has made my heart go boom
Two people in a room that girl is mine.
One guy One girl A night to show
I love for her A night to show i have love for her

She's got that perfect smile
(It's gotta be good)
She's got those eyes
(It's gotta be)
She's got that look of love
(It's gotta be)
She's got my mind

one touch one night that girl is mine
And she don't even know my game So sweet
Is she I lose my mind
Until that time I won't think straight

She's got that perfect smile
(It's gotta be good)
She's got those eyes
(It's gotta be)
She's got that look of love
(It's gotta be)
She's got my mind

She's got that perfect smile
(It's gotta be good)
She's got those eyes
(It's gotta be)
She's got that look of love
(It's gotta be)
She's got my mind
