

Party, Change On Me

It's been so long since I've felt your arms around me. Baby, I've been missing you.

And when our lips touch, all the magic's gone,

Cause you don't kiss the way you used to.

Please, tell me what's on your mind. I promise I will be gentle and kind

To what you need to say to me about how you've changed and seem to be.

Why did you have to change on me? I loved you just the way you were.

I wish that things could be the way they used to be

When I loved you and you loved me.

You pretend to show me that you'll always be there without fear or shame.

Now it seems I'm always running into empty arms. Honey, tell me who's to blame?

My heart belongs to you. Give me your love and I promise to be true.

Don't turn away from these eyes of mine.

It's happened in the past but, baby, it won't work this time.

We were always meant to be. Why would you ever want to change what could be Something true for you and for me. So open my heart 'cause only you hold the key.
