

Passion, Satisfied

How many times I've longed for You
I long for You once more
One moment in Your presence, Lord
Is all I'm asking for
I will seek You
'Till I find You
Just to touch You
Is what I'm living for
Let Your glory flood my life
Let Your beauty fill my sight
Come and carry me away
Only then will I be satisfied
Only then will I be satisfied
To lay aside the things I love
My throne, my crown, my sin
Abandon all to touch Your heart
And know Your love again
I will seek You
'Till I find You
Just to know You
Is what I'm living for
Let Your glory flood my life
Let Your beauty fill my sight
Come and carry me away
Only then will I be satisfied
Let Your glory flood my life
Let Your beauty fill my sight
Come and carry me, carry me... away
Only then will I be satisfied
Only then will I be satisfied
