

Passion, Stars

You should see the stars tonight
How they shimmer shine so bright
Against the black they look so white
Coming down from such a height
To reach me now, You reach me now

You should see the moon in flight
Cutting 'cross the misty night
Softly dancing in sunshine
Reflections of its light
Reach me now, You reach me now

And how could such a thing
Shine it's light on me
And make everything
Beautiful again

You should feel the sun in spring
Coming out after a rain
Suddenly all is green
Sunshine on everything
I can feel it now, I feel You now

You should hear the angels sing
All gathered 'round their King
More beautiful than you could dream
I've been quietly listening
You can hear them now, I hear them now, oh yeah

And how could such a King
Shine His light on me
And make everything
Beautiful again

I want to shine, I want to be light
I want to tell You it'll be alright
And I want to shine, and I want to fly
Just tell You now, it'll be alright

It'll be alright, it'll be alright

'Cause I've got nothing of my own to give to You
But this light that shines on me, shines on You
And makes everything beautiful again

It'll be alright, it'll be alright
