

Pat Benatar, Big Life

You punch your way through a world of good intentions
People don't matter, all you want to do is win
And nothing ever comes too fast for a man of means
`Cause all you want is everything
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Whoa, ooh, ooh, ooh
Time finds you in a new green situation
Your savoir faire fits you like a second skin
And nothing ever comes too fast for a man of means
`Cause all you want is everything
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Nothing can stop you now
No one can show you how
Nothing can touch you now
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Nothing can stop you now
No one can show you how
And nothing can touch you now
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life, Yeah
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Well all right
`Cause you're living the Big Life
Big Life
Big Life
Big Life
