

Pat Green, Rain In Lafayette

Home from church now, so let your hair down

It's the lord's favorite day.

There's a dance with the tavern, where the drums and fiddles play

So wear your new shoes, your red boots, the dress I cant forget.

Like to watch you dance around me like the rain in Lafayette.

Summers comin', my brain is hummin', said that only you can do

And the way your eyes are smilin' I know mine must be shinin' too

You're my lovely, my only, the one my ally???

Like to watch you dance around me like the rain in Lafayette.

So let the rain fall, cant hurt us at all, get as wet as we can get.

Like to watch you dance around me like the rain in Lafayette.

So let the rain fall, cant hurt us at all, get as wet as we can get.

Like to watch you dance around me like the rain in Lafayette.
