

Pat McGee Band, Don't Give Up

What if I was wrong,
Were you right
You strung me out so long
I won't fight
Our innocence is gone
It's time for moving on
And still I wonder

And when there's something more
Oh. I'll know
I'm not afraid to say
Let go
I'm starting to believe
What if I could be
What if I could...

Somebody wait, somebody stay
You won't open up your eyes
Somebody wait, give me a chance
And I'll open up your eyes
Don't give up
Don't give up

And if I saw the world
Through your eyes
I wonder would it end this time
You're never really sure
We've fallen down before
But you'll never be alone

Somebody wait, somebody stay
You won't open up your eyes
Somebody wait, give me a chance
And I'll open up your eyes
Somebody wait, somebody stay
You don't have to tell me why
Just don't give up

Time has been racing away from me
Where do I stand
I'm scared of us falling
I'll never let go of your hand
My head starts to spin
Im surrounded by reasons
I don't understand
Once again

Somebody wait, somebody stay
You won't open up your eyes
Somebody wait, give me a chance
And I'll Open up your eyes
Somebody wait, somebody stay
You don't have to be alone
Somebody wait, somebody stay
You won't open up your eyes
Don't give up

The world flies by
Im standing still
Scared to be alone
I've lost control
I know im falling
But I wont give up
