

Pat McGee Band, Hero

She can bring back the days when the night never ends
She will you find you flyin'
Around life again
Think about your world now, a walk through the park
Bet you nearly lost it, this time worlds apart

Never though much about it
And you never really do
Til when the day comes she's leavin you

Chorus
She'll be your hero, when the lightning falls
She'll tend to your head and break down the walls
She can promise you heaven, then drag you through hell
And she'll never look back, you might as well

You'll be draggin this dragon around your life
She'll be ragin' inside you, looks like another fight
Backed up and burned out, like a flame at both ends
Scorchin' and thirstin' for some time to mend

Never though much about it
And you never really do
Til when the day comes, she's leavin you

She never meant to hurt you, don't you think it's true
She wouldn't want to leave you, just had to break on through
Sometimes when you're alone, and think about the day
And love will never find her, she's asked for it that way
